

SUMMER LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Follow the bookworm for fun summer reading ideas. Every day counts when it comes to preventing the "Summer Slide." Keep your child motivated with these fun activities.

Week 1: Sign up for a library card. It only takes a few moments! For more information: www.Susqcolibrary.org

Week 2: Fill a jar with pieces of paper with a different word on each. Let your child choose a word, have them define it, and explore that word with them!

Week 3: Set aside at least 15 minutes a day to read! Track the books that your child is reading and reward them with a special activity when they reach milestones.

Week 4: Help your child to find different shaped objects in your home and have them identify them.

Week 5: If you have recipe books you can read a recipe or two and make a yummy snack or meal to enjoy!

Week 6: Practice letter and number writing skills as much as possible. Pick a theme for each day with the focus on one letter and number.

Week 7: Use your new library card to check out books or e-books. Click here for more information.

Week 8: Pretend you are going to visit another city or state. Use your new library card to learn about that

Week 9: If you have access to magazines or newspapers cut out and paste words to make a scrapbook page to remember your staycation adventures!

Week 10: Make paper airplanes. Have a contest to see whose can fly the farthest.

Week 11: Pretend to be a super hero! Write down all of your special powers.

Week 12: Practice math skills with a pretend shopping trip. What can you buy for $5 at the grocery store, ice cream truck, or at the beach?
